

I do not believe that the public interest will best be served by allowing further consolidation of ownership of outlet channels. I believe consolidating ownership reduces diversity of perspective and lowers quality of programming. I believe it would betray the trust the FCC has been given for protecting the media outlets which play such a critical role in our democracy. Please do not bend to the wishes of corporations whose interests are only in profits and power.